

Our facility...	Yes	No	Don't know
1. uses standard definitions (such as McGreer criteria or CDC NHSN definitions) to determine if a resident has an infection
2. reviews provider notes to determine if a resident has an infection
3. maintains a list of residents with healthcare-associated infections in a log book
4. keeps a record of healthcare-associated infections in an electronic spreadsheet or database
5. performs house-wide surveillance of infections among our residents
6. performs targeted surveillance for specific infections among our residents
7. tracks rates of infection over time to identify trends ,e.g., monthly rate, quarterly rate, annual rate
8. creates summary reports (e.g., trends) of healthcare-associated infections
9. reports rates of infections by device days (e.g., # UTIs/1000 urinary catheter days/month)
10. shares infection surveillance data with facility Board members
11. shares infection surveillance data with facility leadership (i.e., CEO, DON, ADON, Medical director)
12. shares infection surveillance data with unit managers
13. shares infection surveillance data with all facility nursing staff
14. shares infection surveillance data with all physicians providing care to residents			