

Assessing Your Tribe for Title IV-E Readiness: Agency Requirements

- What qualifications will the tribe require of caseworkers and supervisors?
- What kinds of initial and ongoing training will the tribe offer to staff, foster or adoptive parents and legal guardians?
- What resources through institutions of higher learning, national organizations and other sources can the tribe use to support its training effort?
- Which case and in-kind third party sources are available for title IV-E purposes?
- What kind of staff skills are needed/available to understand, apply, and adhere to the various financial rules?
- What staffing resources are available to ensure that training plans, financial reports, etc. are kept updated and submitted as frequently as required and/or needed?
- How will the tribe use automation to keep records, track children in care and meet AFCARS data reporting requirements?
- What is the feasibility of implementing a comprehensive case management system?
