

| Responsibility         | Placement & Care for Children    | Case Planning & Case Management                                 | Eligibility Determinations   | Financial Accounting & Reporting | IV-E Plan                        | Laws, Policies, and Procedures to meet IV-E Requirements | Data Reporting (AFCARS)   | Adoption Assistance              | Training Activities   | Foster Home Recruitment & Licensing                             | NOTES  |
|------------------------|----------------------------------|---|--|----------------------------------|----------------------------------|--|---|----------------------------------|---|---|--|
| Direct IV-E            | Tribe has primary responsibility | Tribe has primary responsibility                                | Tribe has primary responsibility                                       | Tribe has primary responsibility | Tribe has primary responsibility | Tribe has primary responsibility                         | Tribe has primary responsibility                                | Tribe has primary responsibility | Tribe has primary responsibility                                | Tribe has primary responsibility                                |  |
| Tribal-State Agreement | Tribe has primary responsibility | Tribe has primary responsibility                                | State has primary responsibility. Tribe provides relevant information. | State has primary responsibility | State has primary responsibility | State & Tribe have responsibility                        | State has primary responsibility. Tribe provides relevant data. | Negotiated. May be shared.       | Negotiated. May be shared.                                      | Negotiated. May be shared.                                      | State agency has access to case records, reports, and other materials as needed to monitor IV-E compliance.                                      |
| IV-E Contract          | State has primary responsibility | State has primary responsibility, may be contracted with Tribe. | State has primary responsibility                                       | State has primary responsibility | State has primary responsibility | State has primary responsibility                         | State has primary responsibility                                | State has primary responsibility | State has primary responsibility, may be contracted with Tribe. | State has primary responsibility, may be contracted with Tribe. | Not a “IV-E agreement. The State is responsible for meeting all IV-E requirements, even though some activities may be contracted with the Tribe. |